Licensees choosing to maintain active status must complete a Board-approved PC&E course once every six years. You can find your next PC&E due date to the right of your expiration date on Part A of the renewal form. If a PC&E course is due, it must be completed on or before your license expiration date, and reported at the time of renewal. An approved course may be completed earlier than the required renewal date. It is important, however, to (1) answer Question 4 in Part A on the renewal form when you have completed a qualifying PC&E course earlier than required, and (2) list the course and the approval number on Part C.

PC&E COURSES APPROVED AS OF 04/01/08*(Contact sponsors for course schedules and to register.)*Live Presentation Courses
